Product Description

Elevate your spaces with this high-quality printed Bianco Dolomite White marble mosaic tile, which is a good building stone for interior wall decoration. It is an innovative and distinctive product that blends timeless elegance with three different surface process designs. Crafted from premium Dolomite white marble and produced using advanced printing technology, this mosaic tile offers unparalleled beauty and uncompromising quality for all your interior design needs. At the heart of this remarkable mosaic tile is the exquisite Dolomite white marble. Known for its pure, luminous white background and delicate grey veining patterns, this natural stone exudes a sense of refined sophistication that effortlessly complements both modern and traditional architectural styles. Through the use of state-of-the-art printing technology, intricate designs, and patterns are precisely etched onto the surface of the mosaic tiles, elevating them from mere functional elements to true works of art. Trapezoid chips are processed to polished, sandblasted, and different printed surfaces, each chip is combined on the regular picket shape on the back net, and finally make a nice mosaic tile by the hand of our factory workers.
